ACCESS FILM-MUSIC "Sneak Peek" Concert in Salt Lake City Opens Utah's Film Festival Week

Salt Lake City, Utah – Access Film-Music kicks off Utah's famed "Film Festival Week" on Wednesday, January 20, 2010 at 8 pm with its annual "Sneak Peek" Launch Party, this year at Piper Down (1492 South State Street, Salt Lake City). Scheduled performers include accomplished national touring singer-songwriters Ellis from Minneapolis and Sarah Sample from Seattle, Sweden's Jamie Meyer, and acoustic duo Moors & McCumber. The evening will close with two exciting artists who call Utah home: Celtic rockers Swagger and Zenherstick, an eclectic trio featuring the exotic instruments theremin and Chapman Stick. The 2010 Access Film-Music "Sneak Peek" Launch Party is open to the public with no charge for admission.

Following their "Sneak Peek" concert in Salt Lake City, the 2010 Access Film-Music Showcase will continue daily in Park City throughout Film Festival Week, a period which encompasses world-renowned film festivals, music showcases and film-related events. Commencing Thursday, January 21 and running through Sunday, January 31, non-stop afternoon and evening showcase performances will be presented at three convenient Old Town Park City locations: The Spur Bar & Grill (352 Main Street), Wasatch Brew Pub (250 Main Street), and J.B. Mulligan's (804 Main Street). The full 12-day performance schedule is available online at AccessFilmMusic.net/schedule.

This winter marks the seventh consecutive year that Access Film-Music Ltd. has provided an opportunity for independent musicians to present their music to the film industry. Music and film are inseparable; the mission of Access Film-Music is to connect Music-Makers with Film-Makers.

Over fifty exceptionally talented songwriters, bands and recording artists will perform as part of the 2010 Access Film-Music Showcase, presenting an unprecedented 200 hours of live music throughout Film Festival Week. Showcase organizers are dedicated to sustaining their strong commitment to local music. Though many of the artists scheduled to perform come from all over the USA, and some from as far away as Sweden, the UK and Australia, over one-third of the artists are based in Utah or have deep Utah roots.

Venues for the 2010 Access Film-Music Showcase are centrally located amid the chaos of Film Festival Week, just steps away from the Egyptian Theater on Park City's Historic Main Street. These intimate venues offer film-festivarians a comfortable spot to relax between films, hold informal meetings, or just hang out and listen to great live music.

While some other music venues in Park City during Film Festival Week require official festival credentials, Access Film-Music events are open to the public -- no credentials required! There will be no cover charge for most 2010 Access Film-Music Showcase performances.

Access Film-Music Showcase is a production of Access Film-Music Ltd., a subsidiary of Big Ugly Corporation, an entertainment company based in Libertyville, Illinois dedicated to innovating the new music business. Full performance schedules, directions to showcase venues, links to artists' websites and their music are available online at AccessFilmMusic.net.

Access Film-Music Showcase is presented by Big Ugly Music & Media and is made possible by generous contributions from the following sponsors and supporters:

Slamdance Film Festival, Hunnypot Unlimited, Pravda Music Publishing, ContainerBuyers.com, Sonicbids, Park City Film Music Festival, ÉCU European Independent Film Festival, Park Audio, Lake County Film Festival, Park City Television, KRCL 90.9 FM Radio Free Utah, FilmFestivalWeek.net, The Spur Bar & Grill, Wasatch Brew Pub, J.B.
